

Get Curious About Reading!

Celebration of Curiosity Day

Sponsored by Holy Trinity Library

Friday, September 15, 2017

- Curiosity Day is a nationwide celebration of the magic of learning and discovery through reading as only George and The Man with the Yellow Hat can.
- Students may wear a YELLOW t-shirt with school uniform shorts/skirts.
- Students will explore various stations throughout the school to explore their curiosity using their 5 senses!
- Pancakes will be served for lunch in the cafeteria – Read about George making pancakes in Curious George Makes Pancakes.
